ACADEMIC PROJECTS

- ❖ Notes taking website | Key Skills: JavaScript, HTML, CSS | Team Size: 1
Mentor: dcode (YouTube channel) | Link: <https://sagnik-notes.netlify.app/>
I conceptualized and developed a practical note-taking website utilizing HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, with a focus on utilizing local storage for data persistence. This project offers a seamless and efficient platform for users to create, manage, and organize their notes directly within their web browser.
- ❖ Portfolio website | Key Skills: HTML, CSS, JavaScript, MongoDB | Team Size: 1
Mentor: Code With HARRY (You Tube Channel) | Link: <https://sagnik3115.github.io/SagnikPortfolio/>
I conceived and developed a personal portfolio website to showcase my skills, experiences, and projects in a dynamic and visually appealing manner. Utilizing HTML, CSS, and JavaScript and MongoDB. I designed a user-friendly interface that highlights my expertise and achievements effectively. The website features a responsive design, ensuring seamless accessibility across various devices and screen sizes.
